

Study Guide Chapter 15 Hunter 6th V2

Understand the concept of witchcraft in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries

Understand the key characteristics of the Scientific Revolution

Understand the key characteristics of competition between European states in the New World.

Understand the key characteristics of the economic shift of power to northern Europe.

Understand the key characteristics of the economic crisis in sixteenth and seventeenth Europe.

Understand the key characteristics of the Thirty Years War.

Understand the key characteristics of the Dutch rebellion.

Catherine de Médicis	Edict of Nantes	politiques	Philip II
Lepanto	Elizabeth I	Puritans	Peace of Westphalia
raison d'état	Secularization	Scientific Method	Heliocentrism
French Wars of Religion	Baroque	Spanish Armada	Thirty Years War
Henry IV	Huguenots	Nicolaus Copernicus	Cardinal Richelieu
Charles IX	Henri de Guise	Bourbons	St. Bartholomew's Day Massacre
"Paris is worth a Mass"	Michel de Montaigne	Moriscos	The divine right of kings
White Mountain	Ferdinand II	Dutch Republic	Thirty-Nine Articles of Religion
Mary, queen of Scots	House of Orange	Ivan the Terrible	Gustavus Adolphus
Louis XIII	Edict of Restitution	Joint-stock Company	Galileo Galilei
Johannes Kepler	Tycho Brahe	René Descartes	Principia Mathematica
Jean Bodin	Hugo Grotius	William Shakespeare	Sir Francis Bacon