The continuing foreclosures by banks and other private lenders and subsequent sales of these properties including real estate owned by banks (known as REO properties) necessitates knowledge of the disclosure requirements when selling these properties. This chart provides REALTORS® and their clients with an easy-to-use reference guide for determining the general applicability of common disclosure laws for residential real properties of one-to-four units. This chart, however, pertains only to properties, including REO properties, acquired by any lender--private or otherwise--through the foreclosure process or by deed-in-lieu of foreclosure. For the disclosure requirements of other types of property, please see the Sales Disclosure Chart for the general information and the Summary Disclosure Chart for more details and exemptions.

The list of disclosure requirements in this chart is in alphabetical order. Immediately below the name of each disclosure requirement is, in parentheses, any applicable C.A.R. standard form that may be used to satisfy that disclosure requirement. This chart also indicates whether a disclosure is legally required, recommended, or not required, and provides an explanation for each determination. For more information, the legal authorities for the disclosure laws cited in the explanation boxes are available at <http://www.leginfo.ca.gov> for California statutes and <http://www.gpoaccess.gov/uscode/index.html> for federal statutes.

This chart does not cover all disclosure requirements. Examples of items not covered in this chart are disclosure requirements pertaining to local city and county requirements, new subdivisions, government housing, manufactured homes, and others.

Advisability of Title Insurance Notice	Required	If title insurance will not be issued to the buyer of an owner-occupied residential property with one-to-four units, a notice of the advisability of title insurance must be provided in a separate document to the buyer (Cal. Civ. Code § 1057.6). There is no exemption from this requirement for an REO sale. This is typically handled by escrow.
Agency Disclosure Statement  (C.A.R. Form AD<sup>1</sup>)	Required	A real estate agent must provide an agency disclosure statement for a transaction involving one-to-four residential units, commercial, industrial vacant land properties; but not residential income with 5 units or more and not on certain subdivision sales (Cal. Civ. Code § 2079.14). There is no exemption for an REO sale. However, if the seller or buyer refuses to sign an acknowledgement of receipt, the agent shall set forth, sign, and date a written declaration of the facts of the refusal (Cal. Civ. Code § 2079.15).
Agent's Duty to Visually Inspect and Disclose  (C.A.R. Form AVID<sup>1</sup>)	Required	For residential property with one-to-four units (except for certain subdivisions), a real estate agent is required to conduct a reasonably competent and diligent visual inspection and to disclose to the buyer all facts materially affecting the value or desirability of the property that an investigation would reveal (Cal. Civ. Code § 2079). There is no exemption from this requirement for REO sales. C.A.R. Form AVID is not a legally-mandated form, but an agent is strongly advised to use the form to document that he or she has performed the legally required visual inspection.

Code § 1103.1(a)(2)), but is not exempt from other provisions of California law requiring a seller to disclose that a property is located in any of six natural hazard zones. It is therefore highly advisable for an REO lender to obtain an NHD Statement from a third-party disclosure reporting company. The NHD expert is required to include the fact that the property is "within an airport influence area" (Cal. Civ. Code § 1103.4(c)(1)). Although the REO lender is exempt from this disclosure requirement, the lender must nevertheless disclose any known material facts that may affect the value or desirability of the property (see Material Facts below).

Code § 2079.7(a)).</li> <li>• Part 2 is "Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home," and required for most residential properties built before 1978 (see Lead-Based Paint Hazards below), including REO sales.</li> <li>• Part 3 is the "Home Energy Rating Systems" booklet, which is not required for any transaction. Such death or the manner of death are NOT material facts that require disclosure. Any death which has occurred within a 3-year period should be disclosed if deemed to be "material." Affliction with AIDS or death from AIDS-related complications, no matter when it occurred, need not be voluntarily disclosed. However, neither a seller nor seller's agent may make an intentional misrepresentation in response to a direct question concerning AIDS/death from AIDS on the property. An agent may simply respond that discussing such information may constitute prohibited discriminatory conduct. Cal Civ. Code § 1710.2

It is therefore highly advisable for an REO lender to obtain an NHD Statement from a third-party disclosure reporting company. The NHD expert is required to include the fact that the property is located within one mile of a farm or ranch as designated on a GIS map (Cal. Civ. Code § 1103.4(c)(3)). Although the REO lender is exempt from this disclosure requirement, the lender must nevertheless disclose any known material facts that may affect the value or desirability of the property (see Material Facts below).
